

OFFICE FOR FACULTY EXCELLENCE

Overview

This office is committed to delivering service that is respectful and equitable for faculty at the School of Nursing. Quality of service and resources provided by this office permits faculty to function at their optimum level while ensuring faculty success. The Office for Faculty Excellence provides professional development opportunities while fostering a work environment that is inspiration. The goal of this office is to promote faculty success to achieve their professional career goals that will undergird the School of Nursing's overall mission and goals.